A collage of 12 industrial sewing and textile machinery. The top row includes a spray gun, a table press, a button machine, and a large sewing machine. The middle row features a circular cutter, a vertical cutter, a flatbed press, a JUKI sewing machine, and a JUKI serger. The bottom row shows a JUKI sewing machine, a BONMAC serger, and a JUKI sewing machine. A large blue number '5' is in the top right corner.

A technical line drawing of a men's clothing set. The top piece is a long-sleeved shirt with a pointed collar, a button-down front, and two chest pockets. The bottom piece is a pair of trousers with a belt and a buttoned fly. The drawing uses solid black lines for the main garment shapes and dashed lines to indicate seam placements and construction details.

Three spools of thread are shown side-by-side. The left spool is blue with a blue base and top. The middle spool is pink with an orange base and top. The right spool is white with a yellow-green base and top. All spools are filled with thread wound in a consistent spiral pattern.
